

Liz O'Connor

Account Representative / Biologist
Aquatic Systems

Question:

I haven't seen any reduction in the flora in the lake behind my house. Did they treat this lake yet?

Answer:

The plants in several of the lakes in August and September 2015 are actually beneficial plants and will not take over the entire pond.

It should also be noted that due to the depth of the ponds along the shoreline, it is better to have the beneficial plants there than algae growth.